SUNDAY AND SUNDAY ACTIVITIES

Sock Puppet Workshop: Saturday at 1:00 p.m. in the Heritage Center. The workshop is free and open to children ages five and up. (Children aged 5 and 6 must be accompanied by an adult).

Dragons Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions: The puppet show, "He Followed Me Home. Can I Keep Him?" will be held on the south side of the World War II Memorial on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. and Sunday at 1:00 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. Shows are free and open to the public.

The presentation is supported by the Performing Arts Fund, a program of Arts Midwest funded by the National Endowment for the Arts with additional contributions from General Mills Foundation, Land O'Lakes Foundation, and North Dakota Council on the Arts.

Potter's Will, a group of local potters and sculptors will demonstrate their craft and offer the public an opportunity to try their hand on the potter's wheel. For a small fee, children and adults can use colors and textures to decorate their pots. The pieces will be dried, kiln fired and glazed. Finished ceramic pieces will be picked up at Bismarck Art and Galleries Association later in August.

Temporary Tattoos: Tattoo booth for children of all ages. The booth is located on the east lawn next to Urban Girl. 60¢ a tattoo. 10:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Urban Girl: Bracelet making activities on Saturday from 10:00 - 5:00 p.m. Cost is $5 for participants. Located on the east lawn by the World War II Memorial.
